

Girls Coach of the Year - Class 1A

Kaye Kimpling - Teutopolis

Kaye Kimpling's final Teutopolis tennis team was one for the record books. The retiring coach of the Lady Shoes led Teutopolis to a season that featured many new school records and lots of successes. Here is a partial list of their accomplishments:

- Dual record of 12-1
- Champions of the St. Anthony Invite and the Heather Bradshaw Invite
- Sectional champions for the 5th time in school history
- Diana Mossman finished in the top 24 in singles (school record)
- Alli Brumleve and Macy Probst finished in the top 12 in doubles (school record)
- Team finish of 14th at the state meet (school record)

Kaye's athletic director, Laurie Thompson, had the following remarks about Kaye's impact at Teutopolis:

"Coach K is retiring after this season and she will be extremely hard to replace. She has not only taught our athletes tennis but, more importantly, she has taught them to be kind, determined, strong-minded responsible young adults. Coach K is highly respected by our staff and administration."
