

Regional Girls COY - Class 2A - 2021

Dan Kiernan (Libertyville)

Dan's 18th year as the boss at Libertyville produced his most outstanding team to date. The Wildcats qualified three entries from the rugged Stevenson sectional and went on to finish 7th at the state meet. Libertyville's top singles player, Margaret Forkner, finished 6th in singles, while teammate Lena Dogadalski finished in the top 16 to also earn all-state recognition.

Alyssa Girgis (Naperville Central)

In Alyssa's 3rd year as the head coach at Naperville Central, the Redhawks qualified one player for the state meet. Freshman Sofia Olaru won the Benet Sectional singles title and followed that up with a top 8 finish at state, giving her team a top 20 state finish with only her results.

Tracy Palmer (Rockford Auburn)

Rockford Auburn dominated the Harlem Sectional, winning its fourth straight sectional crown and qualifying five ladies for state. At the state meet, Auburn tied for 17th, with singles player Amy Park finishing in the top 24 to earn all-state status.

Jerry Morse-Karzen (New Trier)

New Trier captured a sectional title for the 39th time in the last 40 years. The Trevians qualified all six players for state and finished in a tie for 2nd place at the state meet, earning Jerry Morse-Karzen's eighth trophy as the head coach of the girls. All six New Trier players earned all-state recognition, with Madison Liu leading the way with a 5th place singles finish.

Dan Kiernan
Libertyville

Alyssa Girgis
Naperville Central

Tracy Palmer
Rockford Auburn

Jerry Morse-Karzen
New Trier