

Boys Assistant Coaches of the Year

Class 1A - Devan Faulkenberg – Troy Triad

The 2017 Triad Knights had a lot to celebrate this season; here are a few highlights:

- Dual record of 24-6
- Mississippi Valley Conference and IHSA Sectional champions
- Qualified five players for the state tournament, finishing in the top 20

Here is what Triad's head coach, Jack Carmody, says about Devan:

“Devan is the yin to my yang. Together, we are good cop, bad cop at certain times. With Devan, we are able to train more kids, instruct more, and communicate more. Devan is young and I am older, and both of us feed off of each other getting more guys to reach the heights of their game and make strides toward becoming better players and people in general.”

Class 2A - Hal Masoncup – St. Charles North

Hal Masoncup assisted with a terrific season for St. Charles North in 2017.

- Dual record of 15-3
- Upstate Eight Conference and IHSA Sectional runners-up
- Qualified four players for the state tournament

Hal said the following about his 2017 experience:

“I am so honored to be recognized by IHSTCA as assistant boys coach of the year for 2017. It is amazing that I am able to work with my son (head coach Sean Masoncup) every day to help student athletes at SCN realize their tennis potential. Sean and the other SCN coaches, Mike and Lauren, constantly discuss how to make practices fit the needs of our players at every level of the program.”
